

we have known each other from day 1 of college & it was the best thing ever. Since then we have had so many memories. All the fun, the bad days, perfect holidays. All the best naps ever & the 'all time', it has all been very special to me just because of you. You are my closest friend. You're the one person with whom I can sit & talk to for the longest time. We don't need to go to a restaurant or fancy place to enjoy, our dates are the best dates!! I wish to go on more dates with you, Pinky too (I love you).

You are not just a friend but other things too I can never explain. From being total strangers to the duo who love sharing clothes, feelings & best advices! After college I can definitely say I had the best memories of my life in college & credits - all to you guys. We are going to buy an island for sure & stay like this.

Now that you are 21, I am waiting for the days when you will call me & say 'let's go on a trip', 'we need to hangout' or 'be there in the court, I'm getting married?'

Thanks for being You! I LOVE YOU SO MUCH.
